

and parking for visitors in an appropriate location adjacent to offices as approved by the Engineer.

24.2.3 Communication Facilities

- A. The Contractor shall establish and maintain a suitably equipped communications facility with telephone, facsimile and e-mail / internet facilities for his Project Office. This shall be continuously manned 24 hours a day and 365 days per year with adequate contact arrangements with key staff. The Contractors Project Office shall be the default point of contact for receipt of instructions from the Engineer.

24.2.4 Storage Areas and Sheds

- A. Storage requirements, allowing for access and orderly provision for maintenance and for inspection of products, shall fulfil the requirements of Section 1600. Enough space shall also be provided for temporary storage of spare parts, consumables and tools required for operations and maintenance functions.

24.2.5 Materials, Equipment, Furnishings

- A. Materials, equipment, and furnishings shall be serviceable, new or nearly new, adequate for required purpose and in agreement with the Engineer.

24.2.6 Construction

- A. Portable or mobile buildings will not be accepted.
- B. Construction: The Contractor shall provide structurally sound, secure, insulated, weather tight enclosures for office and storage spaces. The enclosures must be maintained during progress of Work and removed upon issue of the Provisional Acceptance Certificate.
- C. Temperature transmission resistance of floors, walls, and ceilings shall be compatible with occupancy and storage requirements.
- D. Exterior materials shall be weather resistant, finished and in color acceptable to the Engineer.
- E. Interior materials in offices shall be sheet type materials for walls and ceilings, pre-finished or painted; floors and bases shall be resilient.
- F. Lighting for offices shall be adequate at desktop height. The Contractor shall provide exterior lighting at entrance doors.