

- C. The program shall include in chronological order of the start, the periods required for all applicable activities such as:
 - a. Preparation of Design and its approval
 - b. Manufacture and Works testing
 - c. Packing, Shipping, Transport
 - d. Erection
 - e. Testing, Commissioning
 - f. Running of Plant
 - g. As-built drawings and O&M manuals
 - h. PAC date

1.1.19 Drawings

- A. All Drawings shall be of the size DIN A1 (594 x 840 mm) and shall be numbered consecutively and dated. Each drawing shall show at the title block the name of the project, the Contract Number, the name of the plant or structure, other items detailed on the drawing itself and other information as required by the Engineer.
- B. The Engineer's approval on any subject shall not relieve the Contractor from his responsibility under this Contract.
- C. Within the mobilization period the Contractor shall submit a complete list of drawings required for the Works including the scheduled submission dates.
- D. Construction/ manufacture shall not commence until such time as the Contractor is in receipt of the approved drawings. After the Engineer's approval the drawings shall not be altered.

1.1.20 Engineer's Tender Drawings

- A. Preliminary general arrangement drawings are provided for the guidance of the Contractor only. The Contractor shall maintain the arrangement of Plant as far as possible, subject to differences in dimensions of the equipment offered. The Civil Work structures have been dimensioned to cater for a variety of equipment. Should alterations of civil works become necessary in order to accommodate the equipment proposed than the Contractor shall carry out such changes. Any costs required for such alterations shall be included in the relevant items of the Schedule of rates.