

- iii. Prominently display in offices and on the site "Accident response" procedure to be taken in the event of an accident with the ambulance emergency number, name and telephone number of first aider and location of first aid boxes.
- 5. Accommodation for Rest Breaks
 - a. The Contractor shall provide, erect, maintain and finally remove and make good the site thereof, rest accommodation and shelters to accommodate all site staff and workmen.
 - b. The Contractor shall provide, erect, maintain and finally remove and make good the site thereof sufficient sanitary accommodation for the use of his staff and workmen and shall keep the same in a proper and sanitary condition during the period of use, consisting of:
 - i. Washbasins, troughs or buckets.
 - ii. Soap, towels and/or drying tissues.
 - iii. Hot & cold water.
 - iv. Toilets and urinals.
 - c. The Contractor shall provide on the site at all times an adequate supply of potable water to drinking water standards for the use of his staff and workmen.
 - i. Potable water including water for bathing shall be chlorinated to drinking water standards.
 - ii. The Contractor shall adopt a procedure for ensuring filtered drinking water is available by maintaining water supply lines with filters, ensuring that filters are replaced and records are kept.
 - iii. Where water cannot be made available direct to the site through the mains, the Contractor shall arrange for the conveyance of bulk supply of water to the site and shall ensure that a sufficient supply of water is available at all times.
 - d. The Contractor shall identify, provide and maintain all artificial lighting as required to ensure the continuation of the works.
 - e. The Contractor shall provide and maintain at all times, safe access/egress to, from, on the site, and to places of work within the site.