

Roaster houses	(250) square feet
Supermarkets	(2000) square feet from it (500) square feet as a storehouse
Groceries	130 square feet
Pharmacies	300 square feet
Clinics	Two rooms and a hall with (12) square meters area for each one and a lavatory

Article (34): The educational buildings:

The following conditions should be provided as a limit inferior for every kind of the educational buildings mentioned below:

a. Schools:

1. The school location should be in the areas that are stated for such usage according to the map which supplement with the system of classifying and economizing land usages in the emirate.
2. Schools should be designed according to the approved international standard specifications and according to the conditions of the Ministry of Education and to the conditions that are mentioned in this list.
3. Students' lavatories should be provided as the following: one toilet and one sink are for every class as well as water coolers for drinking should be distributed inside suites and in the shaded places in the school yards.
4. Providing lavatories for the teachers and the employees where one toilet and one sink are for every (10) classes.
5. The sanitary conditions that are settled in the regulations of public health, which are prevalent in the emirate, should be provided in all the parts and the elements of the building.
6. Providing natural ventilation, lighting and air-conditioning according to the standard specifications that are approved for all the elements of the school especially summer rooms, labs and halls.
7. The direction of lighting should be on the students' left and it should not be on the side which is opposite to the frontal teaching board.
8. Providing closets and shelves in classes and labs in a way that goes with the number of the students. Classes should be supplied with suitable curtains.
9. Separating the classes, the school yard, the cafeteria, the lavatories that are related to both sexes (female and male)
10. The school should have a library with an area that goes with the number of the students.
11. The school should include rooms for the school management, the teachers, the executives, the supervisors where the area should go with the number of the school students.