

D.8 - Prohibited connection arrangement: the installation of an on-line pump that draws water directly or indirectly from the main distribution pipeline.

The above drawing is for illustration purposes only. It demonstrates that pumps installed for the purpose of drawing water from the main distribution pipe are not allowed and are considered contrary to the Regulations.