

4.4. Accessibility

It is recommended that the open space and active transport network between community facilities close to each other are of high quality. This will ensure accessibility between the facilities and will activate them as hubs to serve the wider master plan as demonstrated in Figure 4.10.

Neighborhood level facilities must be accessible via pedestrian infrastructure. At the community level, facilities should be accessible via pedestrian infrastructure where possible.

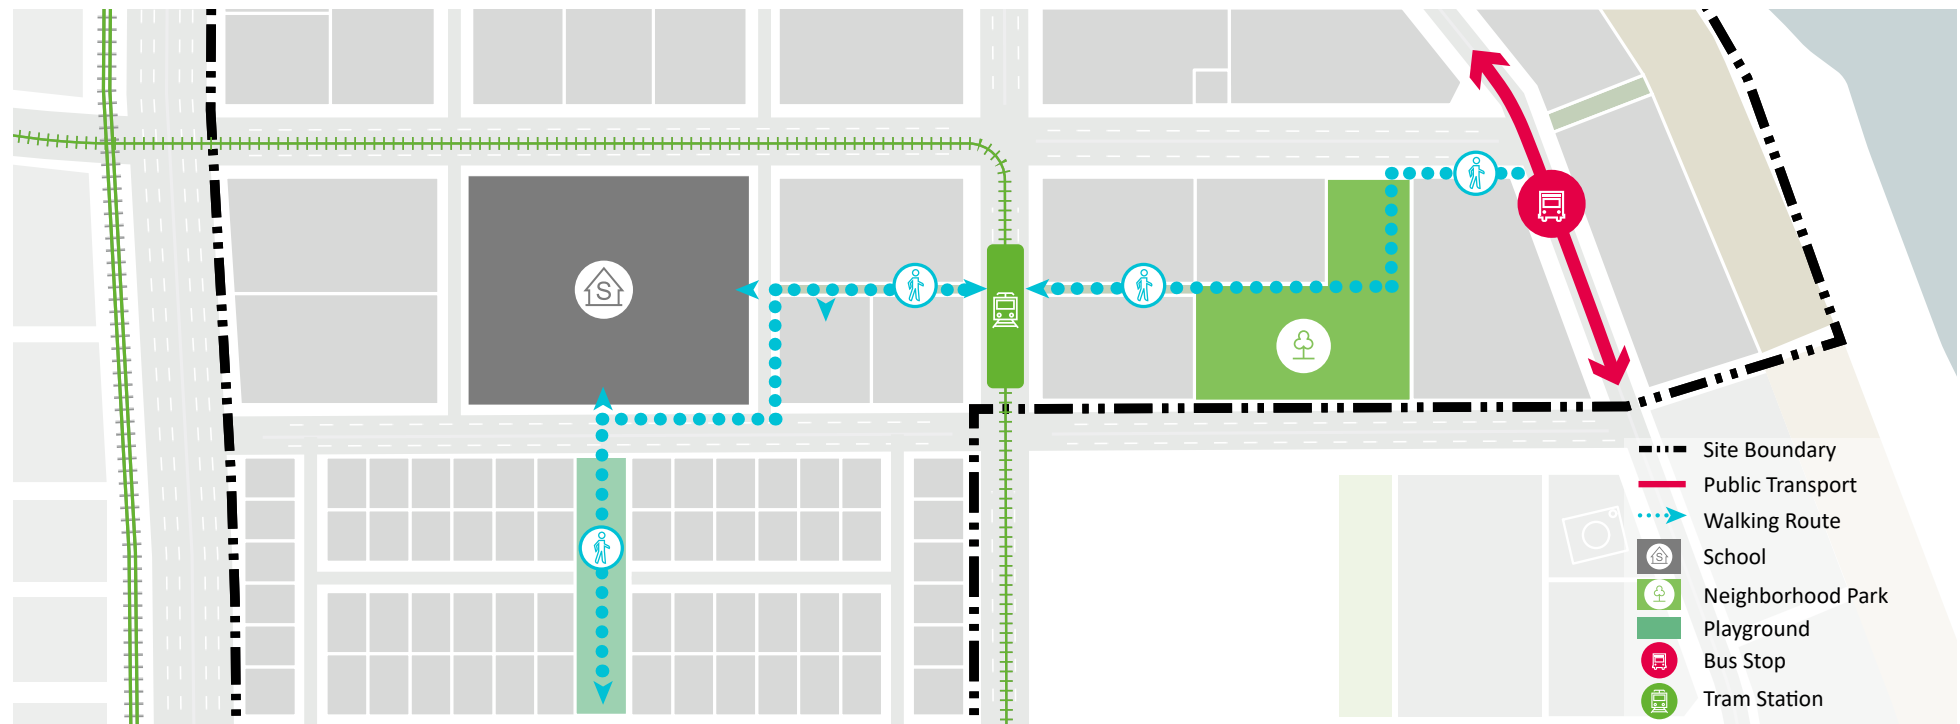

Figure 4.10: Connect community facilities to the wider environment