

Regulations of Construction Conditions And Specifications in the Emirate of Sharjah

6. When the room is lit and ventilated through a balcony, the room depth shall be measured from the balcony façade or its roofed surface.
7. It is preferable that the room furniture should be light-weight and easy to move type and raised off the floor for facilitating cleaning operation.

Article (2/30): General Health and Safety Conditions.

1. The owners and directors of hotel institutions should ensure the cleaning of their institutions continuously, and to take the efficient measure for preventing the presence and infiltration of any insects and rodents into the buildings.
2. The availability of a warehouse meeting the health conditions that should also be available in warehouses.
3. The kitchen must meet all hygienic conditions.
4. All kinds of foods and beverages must be stored and displayed in places not subject to dust and insects, and away from the sewage and water pipes as well as everything may cause their damage.
5. Food should be distributed to rooms into heated carts or in firmly closed vessels.
6. Hotel must be provided with sufficient and efficient fire fighting equipment.
7. Wastes and trash shall be placed into containers equipped with firmly closed covers, and shall be disposed of on daily basis.
8. It is stipulated that a sufficient number of servicemen, cleaners and cooks to be provided. The cleaners must not be engaged in cooking affairs and presentation of food and that they must maintain their personal cleanliness.
9. Sufficient quantity of kitchen, cooking ware and table clothes should be provided, provided that their type should be compatible with the institution class and importance.
10. A uniform shall be provided to all servicemen, workers and cooks, along with keeping the uniform clean at all times.
11. Cooks should be well versed in the hygienic aspects of storing and preparing food, keeping the kitchen ware clean and sterilized. It is preferable that cooks to be of hotel schools graduates.
12. Workers involved in foodstuff shall be subject to the mandatory medical exam, and should have certificates evidencing that they are free from any epidemic diseases.
13. Every hotel institution, of whatever class, must provide a place for laundry and pressing clothes and bedspreads, which must meet the required hygienic conditions required for laundry and pressing.
14. Should there be a swimming pool in the hotel, it should meet the hygienic conditions.