

The list of the conditions and the specifications of construction

Article (1) : This list is called "The list of the conditions and the specifications of construction".

Article (2): When any disagreement about any section from the following sections in the articles of this list happen or having unclear specifications or standard norms, the explanation which is issued by the competent administration through the committee of building license is the final explanation which is approved for this section or specification.

Article (3): The conditions and the specifications which are mentioned in this list are inseparable part from the technical conditions and specifications that are being applied by the competent administration and founded on the following:

- a) The technical conditions and specifications for constructional works.
- b) The technical conditions and specifications for sanitary drainage works.
- c) The technical conditions and specifications for road works and parking lots.
- d) The technical conditions and specifications which are mentioned in the regulations of environment protection and vocational safety.
- e) The technical conditions and specifications for the works of the nutritional institutions.
- f) The technical conditions and specifications for hotel establishments and the bases for their classification.
- g) The technical conditions and specifications for the means of safety and fire prevention.
- h) Health regulations and public safety.
- i) The technical conditions and specifications that have been mentioned in the list of classifying and economizing land usages.
- j) The technical conditions and specifications for thermal insulation that has been mentioned in the thermal insulation list.
- k) Any other conditions or specifications which are applied by the competent administration.

Article (4): The definitions:

When applying the regulations of this list, the hereunder words and phrases will have the mentioned meanings in front of each one unless the course of the text refers to something else.

- Emirate: Dubai emirate
- Municipality: Dubai municipality.
- Director General: The director general of the municipality.