

- T. For networks consists of pipelines, manholes, valve chambers and inlets, the O & M Manual shall include the maintenance of relevant network components such as replace the damaged covers and frames, spindles, routine cleaning of storm water inlets etc.

28.1.6 Instruction of DMAT Personnel

- A. Before handing over the Contractor should train the DMAT's designated personnel in operations for special items.
- B. For equipment requiring seasonal operation only, the Contractor shall provide guidelines for out of season operation and maintenance.
- C. The Contractor shall use operation and maintenance manuals as basis for instruction. The contents of the manuals shall be reviewed in detail with DMAT's designated personnel to explain all aspects of operation and maintenance.
- D. The Contractor shall prepare and insert additional data in Operation and Maintenance Manual when need for such data becomes apparent during instruction.

28.1.7 Submittals

- A. The Contractor shall submit two copies of preliminary draft or proposed formats and outlines of contents before start of handing over work. The Engineer will review the draft and return one copy with comments.
- B. For equipment, or component parts of equipment put into service during construction and operated by DMAT, the Contractor shall submit documents within ten days after acceptance.
- C. The Contractor shall submit 1 copy of completed volumes two weeks prior to handing over inspection. This copy will be reviewed and returned after handing over inspection, with Engineer comments. Revise content of all document sets as required prior to final submission.
- D. The Contractor shall submit four sets of revised final volumes in final form within two weeks after handing over inspection.

28.1.8 Schedule of Submittals

- A. The Contractor shall provide Schedule of Submittals as required.

28.2 Part 2 Products

Not Used.