

All equipment shall be fit for use for the purposes specified or implied.

1.2.3 Protective Clothing

1. Overalls
2. Martindale masks, carbon filter masks
3. Air respirators
4. Protective goggles
5. Gloves, head covers
6. Blasting protective gear
7. Protective boots.

1.2.4 Health and Safety

- A. Provision under Section 01540 shall be followed. Health and safety training shall be provided to the staff.

1.2.5 Fastenings

- A. Bolts, nuts and washers and other demountable fastenings of shall be mild steel galvanised or stainless steel to BS970: Part 4 Grade 316S16. PTFE washers and isolators shall be used when fitting, fastening or bolting dissimilar metals.
- B. Fastenings of ferrous parts except high tensile shall be galvanised to BS EN ISO 1461 or sherardised to BS4921. They shall be primed and painted according to Table1-1.
- C. Electro-galvanised nickel cadmium plated fastenings shall not be coated.

1.2.6 Coating Systems

- A. Refer to surface preparation and painting schedules, Table 09900-1 to 09900-6.

1.3 Part 3 Execution

1.3.1 Examination

- A. The Contractor shall verify that surfaces are ready to receive coating treatment in accordance with instructions issued by the manufacturer and to this specification.
- B. Surfaces scheduled to be finished shall be examined prior to commencement of work. Conditions that may potentially affect proper application or spoilt applications shall be immediately reported.