

1.5 Intended Users

The UCDM is applicable to all organisations and professionals involved in the planning, design, construction, maintenance and approval of utilities in new and existing urban streets.

1.6 Stakeholders

Table 1.1 identifies the various stakeholders and describes their roles with regards to application of the UCDM.

Table 1.1: Stakeholders, Roles and Responsibilities

Regulatory Agencies Regulate and approve
Abu Dhabi Urban Planning Council (UPC)	Department of Municipal Affairs (DMA)
Municipalities Implement, review and approve
Abu Dhabi City Municipality (ADM)	Western Region Municipality (WRM)
Al Ain City Municipality (AAM)
Utility Providers Implement
Abu Dhabi Distribution Company (ADDC)	Emirates Telecommunication Corporation (Etisalat)
Abu Dhabi National Oil Company Distribution (ADNOC Distribution)	General Directorate of Civil Defense (ADCD)
Abu Dhabi Sewerage Services Company (ADSSC)	General Headquarters of Abu Dhabi Police (GHQ)
Abu Dhabi Signal Corps	Monitoring and Control Centre (MCC)
Abu Dhabi Transmission and Despatch Company (TRANSCO)	National Emergency Crisis and Disasters Management Authority (NCEMA)
Abu Dhabi Water and Electricity Authority (ADWEA)	Relevant departments within ADM, AAM and WRM
Al Ain Distribution Company (AADC)	District Cooling Providers (e.g. Tabreed)
Department of Transport (DoT)
Emirates Integrated Telecommunications Company PJSC (du)
Oil & Gas Companies Implement
Abu Dhabi Company for Onshore Oil Operations (ADCO)	Abu Dhabi Oil Refining Company (Takreer)
Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC)
Other Agencies Enforce implementation
Center of Waste Management Abu Dhabi (TADWEER)	Telecommunications Regulatory Agency (TRA)
Regulation and Supervision Bureau (RSB)
Others Apply
Consultants	Developers
Contractors	