

Figure 109. Example of an accessible dining room

7.19. Housing

7.19.1. Required accessibility in existing residential buildings

Multi-family buildings must have an accessible path for access to each of the residences and between each of the residences.

There shall be a level entrance to all residences.

In residential buildings, a video doorbell shall be provided.