

number is settled according to the number of the prayers in the mosque and to the study made by the committee observing separating the women's entrances from the men's entrances.

4. Mosques in general should have yards (uncovered yard as a part of the mosque) and a place in it should be dedicated for putting cold water refrigerator as well as covered places for putting the shoes of the prayers.
 5. lavatories should be separated from the mosque building itself where it has an independent entrance and it should not be headed to the kiblah according to the forgiving law .It is preferred to be in the south –east corner and it should be from the eastern model and one of the toilet can be from the western model.
 6. The ablution place must be provided as a necessary element for the mosque.
 7. It is preferred to make an outer fence around the sacred place of the mosque with a suitable height half of it is cement and the upper half is hollowed.
 8. Any drawings or ornaments that contradict with the Islamic law should be avoided.
 9. The material of the inner and the outer finishing should be from the materials and the types that go with the dignity of the mosque.
 10. There should be directorial signs that show all the entrances, movement directions and the service elements available in the mosque.
- d. It is preferred to add an oratory for women in the mosques which are close to public markets, large central mosques, rural areas, on throughways, gardens, parks where the limit inferior for the services of the women 's oratory is as the following:
- i. Lavatories : (2)
 - ii. Sinks : (2)
 - iii. Ablution place: (3)
- The women's oratory which is on a throughway is excluded from that. There can be half the numbers required above.
- e. There should be men oratory and women oratory in the malls whose area is more than (100) thousand square feet with the necessity to provide the limit inferior for the services for both sexes.