

Figure 10. Example of a planter that correctly exceeds the imaginary detection cone.

5.5. Interaction space

The interaction space is the space required by a person to interact with another person, furniture, appliance, machine or another element.

This space is also used by a person to transfer from a wheelchair to a seat or a toilet or to park a pram.

The interaction space shall not invade the accessible path. The interaction space can be frontal or lateral.