

Regulations of Construction Conditions And Specifications in the Emirate of Sharjah

away from the daily direct movement, and to be under permanent control and to be stored in small quantities.

9. Appropriate measures shall be taken and necessary programs shall be set for collecting, sorting out, and storing trash and debris at jobsite, then to be removed to the places allocated for dropping debris in a manner preventing their piling at site or polluting the surround environment.