Land use Class Description/ Definition

Jumma mosques are religious buildings that provide a place of worship for followers of Islam. Jumma mosques differ from local mosques in that they are bigger in size and they offer jumma prayer. They are generally large in size and may house an assembly hall or sanctuary, meeting rooms and classrooms. Friday has been considered as the highest trip generating day of the weekend.
Sample Sites: Yazed Bin Al Munthar Mosque, Khalifa Bin Ahmed Bin Saif Bin Jaber Al Suwaidi Mosque
