

Section Eleven

Conditions of Sewerage

Article (2/82): Definitions.

While applying the provisions of these Regulations, the following words and expressing shall have the meanings stated beside each one of them:

Competent Authority : Engineers, inspectors and controllers of the Sewerage Section charged with the task of implementing the provisions and conditions of the Law and these Regulations concerning the sewerage works.

Sewerage Network : Pipelines and installations erected for the transfer, treatment and drainage of sewage beyond the plot limits.

Storm Water & Shallow Water Drainage Network: Pipelines and installations erected for the transfer and drainage of storm water and shallow water to the city or special areas.

Irrigation Network : Pipelines and installations used for the supply and storage of treated sewage for irrigation purposes.

Main Channel : Pipelines network and manholes relevant to them used for draining sewage, shallow water and storm water owned by the Municipality, or erected for its account, or were put under its supervision.

Secondary Channel : Pipelines and manholes that serve and connect a certain area with the main channel.

Secondary Connection : Pipeline that connects the building with the secondary channel.

Drainage : Any pipe or channel whether open or covered.

Pipe : Any pipe used for the flow of water and liquid.

Sewage Water : Untreated water, including any liquids whether containing planktons or not being drained from the housing, industrial units and public utilities.

Treated Sewage : Water treated from dredge and other materials through any of the known treatment methods that are used for irrigation purposes and likewise.

Shallow Water : Water assembled on surface of whatever source.