

Introduction

This chapter provides a summary of DDA requirements at each stage of the master planning process which are further detailed in the guideline's chapters (1-10).

Moreover, it highlights the general requirements that need to be considered when preparing the submission documents.

The requirements set forth must be fully complied with unless otherwise stated in this guideline.

The applicability or inapplicability of a requirement (when “If Applicable” is stated) is subject to DDA discretion.

