

lead consultant, drawing title, key plan identifying the area relevant to the drawing subject, full record of different revisions, etc

- 12. All the structural drawings shall be cross referenced as much as possible.
- 13. All the structural drawings shall be signed and stamped in standard location of the drawings. Typical space shall be left for CED stamping. If applicable, all the submitted drawings shall be signed and stamped by the third party consultant.
- 14. All the structural drawings required to be approved from CED shall be combined together in PDF binder and shall be properly oriented as well as arranged in order.