

6.8. Perspectives

The overall design vision of the master plan must be illustrated through a perspective image of the full development (bird's eye view). This image must be included in the master plan submission to DDA.

Additional perspectives which illustrate specific spaces or special features in the master plan are recommended to be included in the master plan submission to support in demonstrating the development's vision and principles.

Figure 6.21: Bird's eye view

Figure 6.19: Pedestrian perspective (example 1)

Figure 6.20: Pedestrian perspective (example 2)