

- b. Limit superior: according to the design and the area of the mosque.
- xi. Special buildings:
 - a. According to its special studies.
- f. It is stated, and for special considerations which the nature of
 - i. some buildings has and the architectural designs (galleries, cinemas, schools, malls, industrial equipments), to exceed the height which is being mentioned in section (e) from this article where the standard specifications which are approved by the committee of building license and special requirements are being applied in each usage with observing the heights coordination of those buildings with the adjacent buildings.
- g. The parts of the buildings or the establishments which are allowed to exceed the height are settled according to the following:
 - i. Ornamental elements in general including minarets, domes and ornamental and archeological towers.
 - ii. Chimneys and the devices of discharging smoke, water tanks, lift well and stairwell, the aerals of television and radio, cooling towers, the sunshades of arbors, the airstrip for vertical aircrafts and parts of the parapet of the roof.
 - iii. Commercial towers for advertisements providing that it should go well with the regulations and the conditions that are approved by the concerned administration concerning this.
 - iv. The gables and the domes can exceed the limit superior for building height and the limit superior for the net inner heights and this is for the purposes of decorative and constructional requirements.
 - v. In order to get the approval to exceed the heights in the cases that have been mentioned in the previous section, the following should be observed:
 - vi. Any part of the establishments which are stated to exceed the height for residential and commercial purposes should not be used except bill boards.
 - vii. The height should not exceed the required value to do the job according to what the committee of building license decides and it should not be put in danger the air traffic or it should not damage the neighborhood.

Article (8): The limit inferior for the areas of the rooms:

The area of any floor or the dimensions of any room from the rooms of the building should not be less than the following:

	The limit inferior for the floor area	The limit inferior for the dimension
- The shop	120 square feet	8 feet
- The office	100 square feet	8 feet
- The room	100 square feet	9 feet