

the stormwater system / Network has been satisfactorily rehabilitated/repaired and put back in service.

- F. The Contractor shall erect the temporary measures supports and propping in order to prevent any structural failure or damage throughout the rehabilitation works and protect the public, should work be in a public place.
- G. The Contractor shall prepare working drawings and calculations as and when necessary for temporary work method and the like.
- H. The Contractor shall take all the necessary precautions to protect all the surrounding facilities.
- I. The Contractor shall repair or replace at his cost as directed by the Engineer, all items damaged during the performance of the Works.
- J. The Contractor shall carry out all the necessary steps on the existing electro-mechanical equipment and installations (lights, cables, switches, valves, pipes, etc.) that impair the good achievement of the rehabilitation works, in order to perform these works in accordance with the Contract Documents and to the satisfaction of the Engineer. For this purpose, the Contractor shall coordinate with the Engineer at all times in order to define the best methods to do the temporary modifications on the electro-mechanical installations prior to any site works on a concerned structure and protect and support temporarily the existing installations and piping while carrying out the rehabilitation works.
- K. After the rehabilitation works are completed to the satisfaction of the Engineer on a particular structure, the Contractor shall re-install to its original state the electro-mechanical installations modified by him for the purpose of the rehabilitation works. Then the Contractor shall perform the necessary testing and commissioning of these installations to the satisfaction of the Engineer.
- L. In case the rehabilitation works are carried out by the Contractor next to electro-mechanical installations, The Contractor shall protect these installations from any damage whatsoever and he shall ensure the good functioning of these installations at all times to the approval of the Engineer. In this respect, the repair of the concrete and other required civil works shall be done by the Contractor wherever required by the Engineer, by keeping the equipment in service and ensuring its complete protection and by ensuring a good working condition of these equipment at all times to the satisfaction of the Engineer.
- M. The Contractor shall bear the cost of any damage to the piping / Electro-mechanical equipment and other property and all related delays, penalties and claims,